Dermaspace Wins MINDBODY Visionary Award

Seattle, WA – August, 10, 2018 – Dermaspace has been honored in the inaugural MINDBODY Visionary Awards, given for business excellence fitness, beauty and wellness industries.

“The MINDBODY Visionary Awards are our way of celebrating the businesses owners we serve, for both their success and for how they translate that into helping their communities live healthier, happier lives,” said Rick Stollmeyer, MINDBODY CEO and co-founder. “Connecting the world to wellness starts in our own backyards, and our honorees deserve to be recognized for their commitment and achievements.”

Electrotherapy Skincare, also known as “The Skin Gym”. It’s like physical therapy for your skin!

“The Iderm Treatment is serious skin care for the serious client who’s looking to take their regimen to the next level. We couldn’t be more honored to be able to help clients achieve their skincare goals and to feel better about themselves inside and out.” – Jody Leon, Owner

The MINDBODY Visionary Award is given to businesses who have an average monthly revenue in the top 30% of all MINDBODY customers between January and June 2018.

About Jody Leon

Jody Leon has been a licensed professional in the skin & hair-care industry for over 25 years and holds licensure in both California and Washington State. He started Dermaspace in 2009 which is located in downtown Seattle and is currently writing a book on skincare, to be release in the fall of 2019.

Dermaspace is the home of the Iderm Facial Treatment and is the only such establishment in Washington state that performs this unique facial treatment. The Iderm Treatment is skin detox at its best: You will notice immediately after the first treatment how utterly clean your skin feels. Regular treatments help with acne and rosacea, diminish fine lines, even skin tone, and provide a clearer complexion. Clients come for regular treatments every 2-6 weeks.
